Biography for Bryan Kainrath

Bryan is Vice President of Product Operations at CompTIA. He is responsible for all aspects of operations used to support, develop and maintain CompTIA's certification products including candidate care. Over the course of his 8 years with CompTIA, Bryan has held various operational roles all in support of certifications. Prior to CompTIA, Bryan has held operational roles in the finance, utility and printing industries.