The following information was posted to CSRC announcing release of this document:

July 12, 2013:

NIST has released Special Publication 800-76-2, Biometric Specifications for Personal Identity Verification. This document supports updated PIV biometric options and requirements of the forthcoming FIPS 201-2. It includes specifications for on-card fingerprint comparison and iris recognition. The new edition will formally replace the January 2007 version when FIPS 201-2 is published.
